White Construction Group Awarded United States Mint at Denver Renovation Project

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Nov. 14, 2005 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm specializing in commercial construction, design-build, historic restorations and tenant improvement projects, has been awarded the Numismatic Operations/Room 102 Renovations at the U.S. Mint in Denver. Steve DeThomas will serve as project manager, and Bill Clement will serve as project superintendent.

The project involves the renovation of Room 102 and the associated storage area to accommodate all of the numismatic operations currently located in several spaces throughout the Denver Mint. These renovations include refinishing of the floor, walls, windows, and ceiling. The Denver Mint will occupy the building during the entire construction period. The project is valued at $316,000 and will be completed in February 2006.

Project partners include:

- Client: United States Mint at Denver, Colo.
- Architect: Dauer Haswell Architecture Group, Denver, Colo.
