White Construction Group Completes Historic Carlson Building Remodel

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Dec. 31, 2004 -- White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm specializing in commercial construction, Design/Build and historic restoration projects, announced today that it has completed its work on the historic Carlson Building in Elbert County. The project involved adding an exterior staircase to access the second floor of the building. The second floor remodel included refinishing of the century-old wood floor, adding a new room, installing ceiling fans and repainting. Main floor work included minor case work, and refinishing portions of the original wood floor. The upper floor of this building now houses the administrative staff of the Elbert County Library District. The project is valued at $50,000.
