White Construction Group Announces Completion of the Douglas County Human Services Building

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Dec. 22, 2006 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm announces the completion of the Douglas County Human Services Building in Castle Rock, Colo.

This project involved the construction of a two-story, 31,650-square-foot building with concrete masonry unit (CMU) and rhyolite and stone exterior. The project also included standing seam roofing, aluminum storefront entrances and storefront windows. The building houses office, storage and meeting space, in addition to laboratory and exam room spaces. This project was valued at $4.4 million. Doug Decker was project manager; and Frank Garrett was project superintendent; Suzie Thayer was project coordinator.

This project was the third completed municipal Douglas County project in 2006 for White Construction Group. The other completed projects were the Evidence Technology and Heated Storage buildings in Castle Rock.

“We’re pleased to have such a positive relationship with Douglas County Public Works and are confident that our current project of the Douglas County Southeast Road and Bridge facility in Larkspur will be just as successful.” says Timothy White, president of White Construction Group.
