White Construction Group Completes Historic Restoration of Logan County Courthouse

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Feb. 10, 2005 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm specializing in commercial construction, Design/Build, historic renovations and tenant improvement projects, today announced that it has completed phase one of the historic restoration of the Logan County Courthouse. The project is valued at $626,000.

Logan County is a rapid growing agriculture and industry-based county located in northeastern Colorado. Construction of the present day courthouse began in 1908, and it was dedicated on March 5, 1910.

The project included the restoration of all wood windows in the building, lead-based paint abatement conducted by trained and certified employees of White Construction Group, interior remodeling to create new office spaces, the addition of an elevator, remodeling and code compliance of a handicap ramp, the addition of interior stairs for egress, and damp-proofing of a portion of the foundation.

A ribbon cutting ceremony was held on Jan. 25 to celebrate the completion of phase one of the restoration work
