White Construction Group Adds Three New Staff Members

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Feb. 17, 2005 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm specializing in commercial construction, design-build, historic restorations and tenant improvement projects, today announced that it has added three new staff members. The following staff members have joined the company:

Jared Samples – Junior Estimator

Jared Samples joins White Construction Group as junior estimator. Samples graduated from Colorado State University at Fort Collins in December 2004 with a Bachelor of Science in construction management. Samples was an intern for White Construction Group in the summer of 2004. Samples has extensive construction experience from working for his family's business, Samples Carpentry Services, in Brush, Colo. He will be based out of White Construction Group's Castle Rock headquarters.

Lisa Werdel – Administrative Assistant

Lisa Werdel joins White Construction Group as administrative assistant. Werdel graduated from the University of Colorado at Denver in December 2003 with a bachelor's degree in history. She became acquainted with White Construction Group through her internship with the Colorado Historical Society. Werdel will be based out of White Construction Group's Castle Rock headquarters.

Linda Garrett – Administrative Assistant

Linda Garrett joins White Construction Group as administrative assistant. In this role, she will be marketing White Construction Group's services in the Brighton corridor. Garrett has held numerous administrative positions, including Senior Administrative Assistant to the Director of Parks and Recreation for the City of Brighton. Garrett will be working at White Construction Group's newly established Brighton office, which is scheduled to open in February 2005.
