White Construction Group in Brighton Hosts Chamber Business After Hours

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., March 2, 2006 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm specializing in commercial construction, design-build, historic restorations and tenant improvement projects, opened the doors of its satellite office in Brighton to members of the Brighton Chamber of Commerce at the Business After Hours monthly networking event, Feb. 23, 2006. More than 50 local, civic, and business leaders attended.

“This was a good turnout for the Brighton Chamber,” said Lynn Southard, interim director. “Three board members from the Chamber attended, along with Terry Moore and Dick McClean, city council members, and Manuel Esquibel, Assistant City Manager.”

White Construction Group is currently involved in projects in Brighton including: Play! Stay! & More!, a dog daycare and veterinary clinic, and renovations to Brighton City Hall.
