White Construction Group President Receives Alumni of the Plains Award

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., March 30, 2006 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm specializing in commercial construction, design-build, historic restorations and tenant improvement projects, announces President Timothy L. White as a recipient of the Alumni of the Plains award presented by Progressive 15.

This award recognizes individuals who grew up in Northeastern Colorado and have excelled in their profession and/or have given back to the area. White was recognized as a successful businessman and for his commitment to historic preservation in his childhood community. White grew up in Morgan County and has served on numerous boards. He donates at least 20 hours per week to various civic and non-profit volunteer activities, ranging from service as an elected official to board-level positions on economic development councils, land conservancy foundations, and historical preservation groups.

Progressive 15 is a membership organization that works to ensure a strong economy and the future well being of Northeastern Colorado.
