

CONSTRUCTION GROUP

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:
Diane Beil
White Construction Group
(720) 274-4727
dbeil@whitecg.com

White Construction Group Adds Superintendents

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., April 25, 2006 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm specializing in commercial construction, design-build, historic restorations and tenant improvement projects, announces the addition of three superintendents to accommodate the company's growth.

Bill Davis, Mark Davis, and Mike Garecht are new project superintendents for White Construction Group. Together they encompass more than 75 years of industry experience.

Bill Davis is superintendent for Founders Village Pool in Castle Rock, Colo. and Gym 2005 in Aurora, Colo. Gym 2005 is a Gym and retail center as part of Saddle Rock Marketplace in Aurora and is currently in the design phase.

Mark Davis is superintendent for the Black Hawk main post office and commercial building. This project located in Gilpin County, Colo., consists of a new United States Post Office building and a two-story commercial building with tenant improvements. Davis is also assigned to the Denver Public School Parent Project #3151. This project involves the renovation of six schools.

Garecht is superintendent for the Manzanola Train Depot. This historic train depot, located in Otero County, Colo., involves the renovation of the depot and will be rehabilitated into the Manzanola City Hall and police station.

-more-

About White Construction Group

Founded in 1985, White Construction Group is a fast-growing, multi-million-dollar general contractor that specializes in commercial construction, design-build, historic restorations and tenant improvement projects. The company provides pre-construction, construction management, general construction and post-construction services for public and private clients along the Front Range, northern and northeastern Colorado. To date, the company has completed more than $400 million in construction projects and has won several national awards for its job safety programs. White Construction Group can be reached at (303) 688-6924, or www.whitecg.com.

###