White Construction Group Receives Multiple Safety Awards

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., June 10, 2010 –White Construction Group, a Colorado-based commercial general construction firm, received the 2010 Gold STEP Award and the 2010 Outstanding Safety Program by the Associated Builders and Contractors, Inc.

The Gold STEP, Safety Training and Evaluation Process, is a contractor-developed program that provides an objective method to analyze and help improve safety and loss prevention programs. The firm has received the STEP Safety Award numerous times in its 25-year history. This year, White Construction Group was also recognized with the 2010 Outstanding Safety Program for General Contractors under 150,000 man hours.

“We’re pleased to be recognized again for our safety operations,” said Jason Maxwell, General Superintendent/Safety Manager/CQC. “Each year we strive to improve our safety program by holding ourselves to the highest industry standards by investing in safety consultants, equipment and education resulting in safe and productive jobsites.”
