White Construction Group Begins Morgan Community College Project

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., June 27, 2008 –White Construction Group, a Colorado-based commercial general construction firm, recently began construction on the Morgan Community College Adult Basic Education Building.

The project consists of a new 3,996 sq-ft. pre-engineered building designed to complement the existing buildings on campus. When complete, the facility will provide the College with five additional classrooms, multiple offices, and reception space. It is expected to be completed November 2008. This is the 4th project White Construction Group has completed for Morgan Community College.

The project manager is Seth Noble; project superintendent is Dana Hale; and the project coordinator is Michelle Anderson-Morris. Project partners include:

- Owner: Morgan Community College Foundation, Fort Morgan, Colo.
- Architect: DLR Group of Colorado, Colorado Springs, Colo.
