White Construction Group Breaks Ground on Elbert County Justice Center

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., July 1, 2008 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based commercial general construction firm, recently broke ground for the new Elbert County Justice Center in Kiowa.

This design-build project, located at 751 Ute Street in Kiowa, consists of a 12,000 sq-ft single story building and will feature a heavy timber framed open canopy to capture the old west boardwalk feel of the town.

“We are very excited that construction of the new Justice Center is underway,” said John Metli, Elbert County Commissioner “The new addition will allow us to bring relief to our citizens by returning the court systems to Elbert County.”

The White Construction Group Project Team: Seth Noble, project manager; Joe Gimeno, superintendent. Project partners include: Office of the Board of County Commissioners, owner; Humphries Poli Architects: Michelle Lopez-Orsini, architect. The expected completion date is Mar. 2009.
