White Construction Group Begins Work at Ouray Courthouse

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Aug. 14, 2007 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based commercial general construction firm, has begun work on the historic renovation, restoration and new construction of the Ouray Courthouse in Ouray, Colo.

Located at 541 4th Street, this project consists of the historic renovation and restoration of the roof; masonry rehabilitation and improvements; structural reinforcement; and rehabilitation of the first floor jail. Additional work includes the demolition of the tin shed between the jail and the courthouse; a new basement to include secured evidence locker storage and mechanical rooms; new structural steel and glass link between the Jail and Courthouse; and a new five-stop elevator.

The project is valued at $850,897 and is expected to be completed December 2007. The project manager is Seth Noble; project superintendent is Mike Garecht; project coordinator is Jennifer Mese. Project partners include:

Owner: Ouray County Board of Commissioners, Ouray, Colo.

Architect: Charles Cunniffe Architects, Aspen Colo.
