White Construction Group Awarded Garfield County Justice Center and Rifle Police Station

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Aug. 15, 2007 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based commercial general construction firm, was awarded the contract for new construction of the Garfield County Justice Center and the City of Rifle Police Station in Rifle, Colo.

The project consists of three buildings. The first is a 16,000 sq-ft building to be located at 200 18th St. for the Garfield County Court of the 9th Judicial District. The new space will house offices for the probation department, the district attorney, and the sheriff. Other spaces include a courtroom, judge's chambers, attorney client rooms, jury assembly, jury deliberation, holding rooms, office space for the clerk of the court, office space for probation, and building support.

The second building will be 17,800 sq-ft to be located at 201 18th St. This new facility for the City of Rifle will house the Police and Municipal Court operations. Spaces to be included are: office space for administration, judges, investigations, patrol and community policing, holding cells, record storage, evidence storage, a training area, staff and facility support, building support, and a courtroom.
