White Construction Group Completes Design-Build Clinic Addition

CASTLE ROCK, Colo., Sept. 26, 2005 – White Construction Group, a Colorado-based construction firm specializing in commercial construction, design-build, historic restorations and tenant improvement projects, today announced the completion of the East Morgan County Hospital Clinic building addition.

The 10,000-square-foot, design-build addition is valued at $1.7 million. Seth Noble served as project manager, and Frank Garrett served as superintendent. This is the fourth project White Construction Group has completed for Banner Health. The East Morgan County Hospital in Brush opened in 1910. Since 1954, the hospital has been owned by the East Morgan County Hospital District.

Project partners include:

- Client: East Morgan County Hospital, Brush, Colo.
- Architect: Klump Brinkley Architecture, Golden, Colo.
